Announcement of Tanja Liedtke Award winner Daura Hernández

People holding things by Daura Hernández García

A woman opens the doors to you. She allows you to look inside, so that you can see the emotions that inhabit her, her darkness, her sorrows and her loneliness. She takes care of everything. But who takes care of her? Are we over-caring for others or are we letting them fade away? Are we aware of how we care for others? Who takes care of you?

This piece takes you on a journey inside this character, to discover in a glance what moves us to take care of us and others, to take care as a society.

Artistic direction/Choreography/Production: Daura Hernández García

Emma at HfMDK Frankfurt 2023/24

Emma Ibáñez at HfMDK, Frankfurt

Emma could enjoy a second year in 2023/24 with Deutschlandstipendium at the Hochschule. She said about one of the studies they worked on:

„We immerse ourselves in an excerpt from the choreography of Workwithinwork the William Forsythe under the guidance of Alan Barnes. Finally, we had a new choreographic process with choreographer Nicole Beutler. These last two pieces will be presented at Gallus Theatre, and I am very excited 😊 All this is possible thanks to your help.“

Fellowship 2024 Berlin

Callum Mooney is our fellow for 2024. He had the opportunity to develop his work at the adaStudio under the attention of Gabi Beier. Callum's experience:

„The enterSpace residency was an incredible opportunity to expand on my dance theatre work 'Cosmos,' and immerse myself in the culture of Berlin. Being in ada studio was incredibly inspiring to be surrounded by dancers in other studios making dance.“

Now he is back in Melbourne to further develop his work and show it in different venues in Australia. More info once performance is on the way.

We wish him all the success he deserves.
